

Termini Seat is a place to rest in waiting rooms and between journeys in transit hubs. A generous back provides lumbar support, with armrests for easy egress. Side table comes as an option and is big enough for your coffee, bag and broadsheet. An indoor seat suitable for hospitals, airports, stations, interchanges and service centres.

Certified by AFRDI under Australian and New Zealand Standard 4688:2000 and BS EN 1728:2001, testing for strength and durability.
