

AUSTRALIAN INSTITUTE OF
LANDSCAPE
ARCHITECTS

street
furniture
australia

RSVP essential.
Only 80 seats
available.

2024 Western Sydney Symposium

Climate Action in the Public Realm

Thursday, 14 Nov 2024 | 8.30am - 1pm

Venue: Parramatta Square Auditorium
4 Parramatta Square, 12 Darcy Street, Parramatta

An annual half-day knowledge exchange hosted by Cumberland City Council, AILA and Street Furniture Australia for built environment professionals. In 2024, we will explore positive climate action for the future of Western Sydney and our planet.

Program

8.30	Guest Registration
9.00	Introduction	Ben Stockwin, Chief Executive Officer, Australian Institute of Landscape Architects
	Welcome to Country	Deerubbin Local Aboriginal Land Council
	Tackling Western Sydney's Urban Heat	Prof. Sebastian Pfautsch, Urban Planning and Management, Western Sydney University
	Green and Blue Infrastructure for Australian Settlements	David Martin, Principal, Urban Green Infrastructure & Green Games Legacy Strategy
9.40	Break and Networking
10.00	Cooling Down Western Sydney: A Smart Cumberland Approach	Eshita Dutia, Principal Smart Places Officer, Cumberland City Council
	Materials: What is Low Carbon Aluminium?	Jeff Morgan, Principal, Hassell
	Circularity and Product Stewardship	Rose Read, Director, Product Stewardship Centre of Excellence
	Data Driven Climate Action	June Lee Boxsell, Head of Strategy and Innovation, Street Furniture Australia
10.40	Break and Networking
11.00	Q&A with Speakers	Chaired by Joshua French Chief Executive, Greater Sydney Parklands
	Panel Discussion: The Future of Western Sydney	Chaired by Joshua French with Fiona Morrison (DPHI), Martin O'Dea (Clouston) Christopher Manoski (Cumberland City Council), Adam Cook (City of Parramatta)
12.00	Catered Lunch and Networking

To RSVP, scan QR code or contact
sally@streetfurniture.com
by 1 November 2024.

This is an endorsed CPD activity for AILA members. This activity has been reviewed by AILA's CPD Committee and is accredited with formal CPD points. Participants may self record as a CPD activity for 3 informal CPD points or 5 formal CPD points on completion of a reflective survey.

2024 Western Sydney Symposium

Climate Action in the Public Realm

Presented by:

Host

Ben Stockwin
Chief Executive Officer,
Australian Institute of Landscape Architects

Panel Chair

Joshua French
Chief Executive,
Greater Sydney Parklands

Speakers

Prof. Sebastian Pfautsch
Urban Planning and Management,
Western Sydney University

David Martin
Principal,
Urban Green Infrastructure and
Green Games Legacy Strategy

Eshita Dutia
Principal Smart Places Officer,
Cumberland City Council

Jeff Morgan
Principal,
Hassell

Rose Read
Director,
Product Stewardship Centre
of Excellence

June Lee Boxsell
Head of Strategy and Innovation,
Street Furniture Australia

Panelists

Martin O'Dea
Principal Landscape Architect,
Clouston Associates

Fiona Morrison
Director Open Space Infrastructure Programs,
Department of Planning, Housing and Infrastructure

Christopher Manoski
Manager Place and Engagement,
Cumberland City Council

Adam Cook
Manager of Landscape Architecture,
City of Parramatta

To RSVP, scan QR code or contact
sally@streetfurniture.com
by 1 November 2024.

This is an endorsed CPD activity for AILA members. This activity has been reviewed by AILA's CPD Committee and is accredited with formal CPD points. Participants may self record as a CPD activity for 3 informal CPD points or 5 formal CPD points on completion of a reflective survey.