wood without worry

Select woodgrain aluminium battens for a natural timber look,
with minimal maintenance.

“The Park range is innovative in the way fixings are securely and invisibly captured in a sculptural aluminium casting, offering high levels of vandal-resistance, and, at the same time, practicality, simplicity and good looks.”

William Morrison, co-designer

detail matters

After 20 years of design refinements, the Park range is unparalleled in quality and timeless appeal. Park products not only look good upon installation, but will continue to impress for years to come.

More key features:

Comfort

Superior ergonomic profiles offer greater seating comfort.

Strength

... for all weather conditions.

Visible quality

Premium materials, finishes and manufacturing methods.

Accessibility

Universally designed and DDA-compliant.

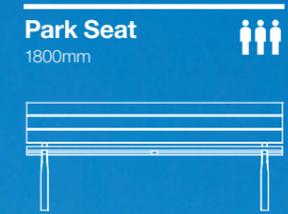

Aftermarket care

Easily maintained with replaceable parts, if required.

new extensions

The Park range is now available in lengths of 1.8 and 2.5 metres. Extended seats can accommodate up to five people and add interest to gardens and streetscapes.

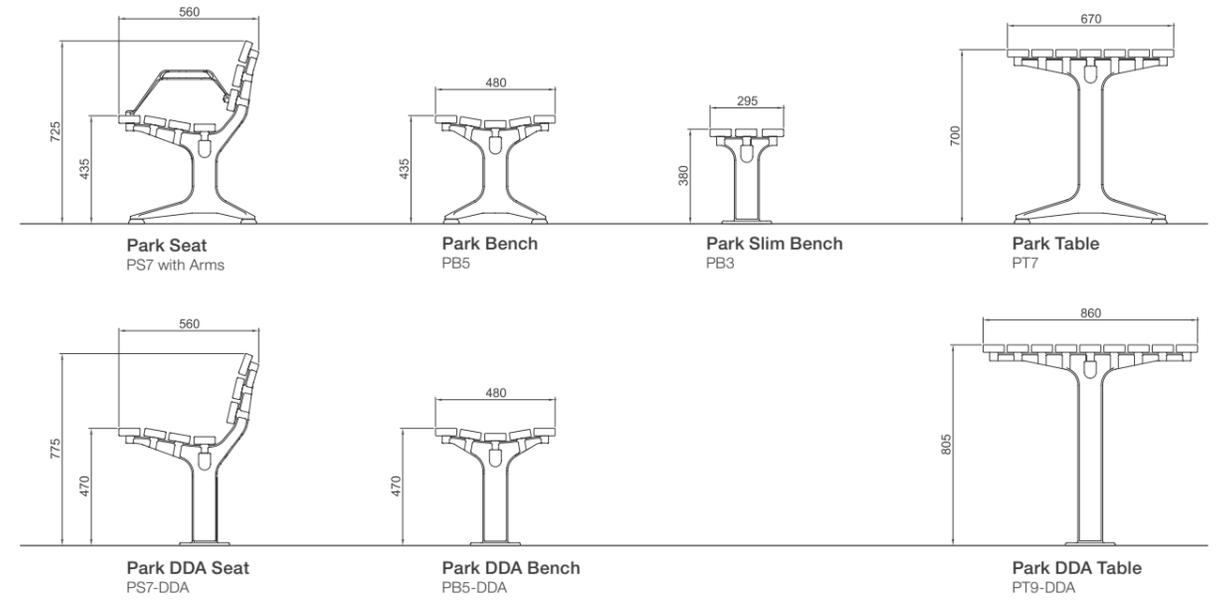

The Park range is available in a wide variety of options. Choose aluminium battens for a sleek modern look, or eco-certified hardwood for a warmer mood and texture.
