activate your place

#BackyardExperiment was an award-winning smart city project that used the Forum and Cafe range and other activation elements to attract 190% more people to Garema Place in Canberra City, Australia.

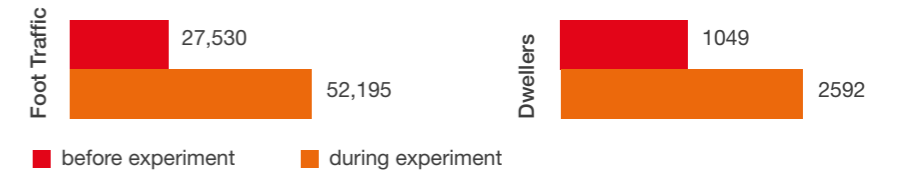

Street Furniture Australia partnered with the Australian Institute of Landscape Architects and ACT Government to bring in colour, movable furniture, lighting and living lawn. The locals brought their incredible community spirit.

The graphs below show the data comparison between two weekdays and two weekend days before and during the experiment in October 2016. Climate conditions were similar across all 4 days.

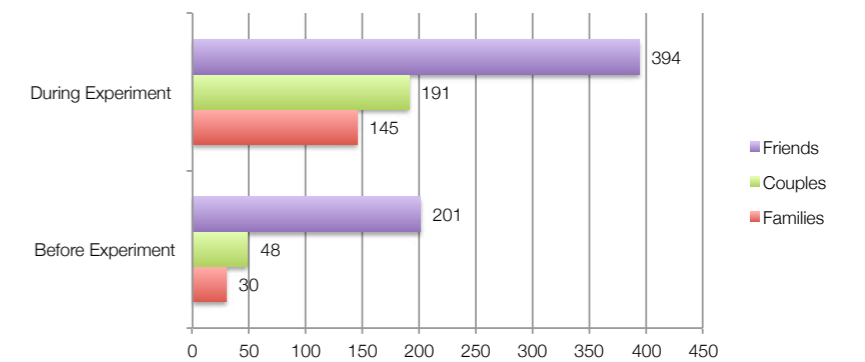

Foot traffic and dwellers

The activation increased foot traffic by 190% and the number of dwellers, or people who stayed, by 247% in only 8 days.

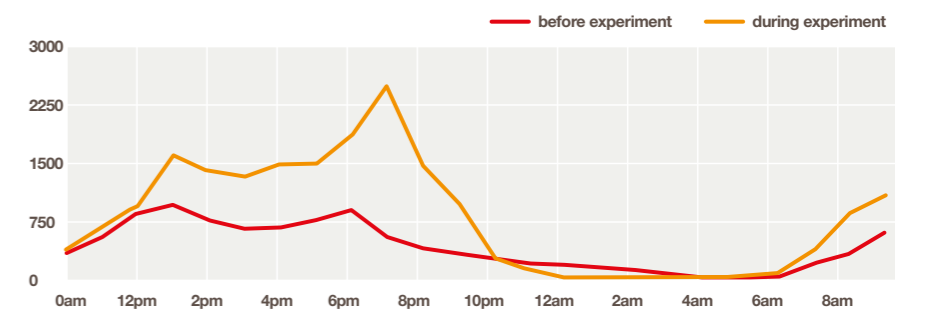

Number of social groups

Among the dwellers, the number of social groups rose by 264%.

24 Hour Visitor Comparison

Tracking visitor numbers: Thursday, October 13 versus Wednesday, October 26, 2018.
